Director Bonnie completes Tolleson mural

A run of unusually cool and rainy weather was a treat for some. For gallery founder Bonnie Lewis, however, it meant it would take her longer than planned to refurbish the Tolleson mural.

That's because you can't paint in the rain and paint doesn't stick to concrete when that concrete is cold. But Bonnie and her volunteer assistants persevered and the mural is now complete.

You can view the mural by driving by. It's on 96th Ave., south of Van Buren. But to really get a feel for the mural's details and overall size, you'll want to park in the adjacent lot and walk along the massive piece of art.

Party time

We hope you've got our Winter Gala on your calendar. We'll have art, refreshments, live entertainment, door prizes and more.

We look forward to seeing you at the gallery between 5:30 and 8 p.m., Saturday, Feb. 25.

And, feel free to bring a friend or two. You know what they say, the more the merrier!

It's a wrap

Feb. 25 not only is our Winter Gala, it's also the last day of our February guest artist show.

We've loved having Edgar Fernandez's painting adding vibrant colors and texture to our walls. He's an exciting young artist with a bright future.

Come see what we mean!
